

THE ELK'S SHOW MAKES BIG HIT

LAST OF HOME TALENT PRODUCTION DOES EXCEPTIONAL WORK IN AMUSING FARCE AT OPERA HOUSE LAST NIGHT.

SHOW AGAIN THIS EVENING

Everybody started at the Elks' shows, "Careless Cupid," given in the Opera House Tuesday night. The show was one continuous round of amusement, and kept the entire audience in high spirits. The singing, acting and costumes were excellent. The costume of Frank (Heavy) Cannon, who took the part of a delapidated chorus girl, evidently was affected from the style shops in France. His stage name is Millie Mildew. Heavy got the entire attention of the audience whenever he made his appearance. Reese Matson, playing the part of Bo Peep, was the really nervous, love-sick maiden. And "she" was ardently wooed by R. M. Hazlett, the King. Daffy Doodle, contestant to the throne, but better known to Greencastle people as Harry Moore, after a strenuous and nerve-racking courtship, finally won the princess, Mrs. Howe. Mrs. Howe acted the part of Jack Tar, or the princess in disguise.

The program as published several days ago was carried out. Mrs. Howe, in singing "Little Jack Tar," won applause. Next came songs by Mr. Hazlett, the king, and Vincent Holopeter, the captain. Miss Kathryn Allen, assisted by the Beauty Chorus sang "If Some One Only Cared for Me" and was called back for two encores. "Somebody Else is Getting It," by Harry Moore, made a hit. Then came "The Rose Song," by Miss Margaret Kreigh. Miss Kreigh's beautiful voice captured the audience and she, too, was called back several times. Mrs. Howe then sang "The Little Tar," and closed the first act with the song "When We Were College Boys." She was assisted by the choruses.

Miss Kreigh was the first on the program in the second act and in her song, "Was There Ever a Night Like This?" again won much applause. The entire company accompanied Miss Kreigh in this song. In the next three numbers the King played a prominent part, it being his official entrance with his bride "Miss" Reese Matson. Miss Ethel Merryweather, a senior in the high school, sang "Close Your Eyes and Slumber." Miss Merryweather has a delightful voice and was called back for two encores. And then came another comic song, "Wilbe Off the Pickle Boat," by Harry Moore.

"The Ghost of the Goblin Man," sung by Mrs. Howe, accompanied by the chorus, was a clever piece of song-writing. The song depicted the frightened girls with the ghost playing his part from the stage wings. Miss Marjory Campbell was called for three encores to her song "Moon, Moon, Moon." Mrs. Howe made her hit of the evening in the song, "The Devil's Ball," and sang the chorus four times in answer to the applause of the audience. The closing number, "Oh You Tease," by Mrs. Howe, also was a hit.

Orville Hixon took the part of Dick Dare, Edward Hamilton and Clifford Allen, arch conspirators, and James Cannon the part of Simon Brown, an inventor. Miss Nelle Gardner did some exceptional acting in the part of Fadetia, a love-lorn maiden. The king's standing army consisted of Messers Wood and Lane. Every part of the show was a success. Every person in the cast did exceptionally well and deserve much credit. The show will be given again this evening and probably a crowd even larger than that of last night will be present.

Decoration Day will be commemorated at the Bethel Baptist church, in Clinton township, Friday May 24, with services at the church by Elder C. L. Althart. It will be a basket-meeting and a large attendance is anticipated.

PLAN FOR DEMONSTRATION WHEN NEW LIGHTING SYSTEM IS COMPLETE.

If the plans of J. G. Bryson, manager of the Putnam Electric company, are carried out, there will be quite a demonstration here when the new street lighting system is completed and the lights turned out. It is the plan of Mr. Bryson and several of the councilmen to have the new system tried out by districts. This will be done previous to July 1, when the new system is to be completed.

After all the lights have been thoroughly tested and Mr. Bryson is assured that there will be no hitch in the arrangements the demonstration will be carried out. It probably will occur on the night of June 30.

Then the electricity will be turned into the entire system and the city will be aglow. Mr. Bryson is planning on having the Harmony band here and to give a band concert. This together with any other feature which may be carried out, will be at the expense of the electric light company. The citizens will be the guests, as it were, of the company and its officials.

Mr. Bryson was here today when asked regarding the location of the uptown office which the new franchise calls for. Mr. Bryson said that he had not definitely decided. It probably will be located in the room in the rear of the Central National Bank, however.

BADLY INJURED BY HORSE KICK

ANDREW STONER SUFFERS
BROKEN JAW AND OTHER PAINFUL HURTS IN ACCIDENT ABOUT 7 O'CLOCK MONDAY EVENING.

FACE TERRIBLY MANGLED

Andrew Stoner, who lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Stoner, about two miles west of town, was seriously injured about 7 o'clock Monday evening when kicked on the chin by a horse. Mr. Stoner's chin was cut open, his jaw broken, and his entire face badly lacerated.

Mr. Stoner was attempting to catch the horse. The animal, which was in a pasture, ran into the stable. Mr. Stoner followed it into the barn, and just as he stepped through the door the horse kicked. One hoof struck Mr. Stoner just under the chin, cutting the gash and breaking his jaw.

Mr. Stoner was knocked down by the terrific blow and for some minutes lay stunned. When he partially recovered, members of the family, who were at the house, heard his groans. When they found him, however, Mr. Stoner had dragged himself nearly out of the barn. They carried him to the house.

Dr. Tucker was hurriedly summoned. When he arrived Mr. Stoner's entire face, which was terribly bruised and lacerated, had swollen until it was beyond recognition. Dr. Tucker cleansed the injuries, sewed up the cut in Mr. Stoner's chin and set the broken jaw. Mr. Stoner was resting nicely this afternoon.

The actions of the horse were entirely unlooked for by Mr. Stoner, as the animal usually is gentle.

Mrs. Harris, of Buffalo, N. Y., is here visiting Mrs. Luella Fry.

VERDICT FOR MRS. JENKINS

ONLY ONE BALLOT TAKEN BY JURY IN CASE OF JOSEPH JENKINS AGAINST RHODE BELLE JENKINS.

ATTORNEY DENOUNCES MAN

It required but one ballot for the jury in the case of Joseph Jenkins against his former wife, Rhoda Belle Jenkins, to make its decision, and when the verdict opened by Judge Hughes it read as follows: "We, the jury, find for the defendant." The case went to the jury Thursday afternoon about 4:45 o'clock and ten minutes later the verdict was read. The vote on the first and only ballot was unanimously in favor of Mrs. Jenkins.

In his address or argument before the jury Thursday afternoon Attorney S. A. Hays bitterly arraigned Jenkins for his allegations and testimony in the case. He denounced Jenkins as a man unfit to be allowed in society, and made the statement that he should be behind the prison bars for his actions toward his former wife and his testimony on the witness stand.

According to the testimony Jenkins led his wife to believe that they were not divorced, and in that way induced her to live with him. After they lived together for nine months, Jenkins and Mrs. Jenkins quarrelled. He then told her she had been living with him in adultery for nine months. The testimony showed that Mrs. Jenkins then left him.

Mrs. Jenkins was born and reared in Washington township and bears a good reputation. Her parents, from whom she inherited her 187-acre farm, were wealthy. She has been married twice. Her son is a telegraph operator at Eagles.

SCARLET NINE IS WALLOPED.

DePauw Snows Wabash Under in
1 to 1 Game on McKee Field
Monday Afternoon.

Pounding the Wabash pitcher will during the first two innings and continuing with a steady fire of hits throughout the entire game. Coach Casey's aggregation of "slugging Methodists" completely snowed under Harper's band of "We'll get you yet" Little Giants on McKee field Monday afternoon, the final score being 7 to 1.

Wabash gave up hopes of the game in the eighth, when Roach, a Wabash freshman who had never before pitched in a varsity game, took the place of Wakely, who was beginning to tire. The fielding of the Wabash team throughout the entire nine innings was ragged and uncertain. Eight errors shows how bad the fielding was. DePauw played an almost errorless game, but the victory was accorded chiefly through the bunched stick work. Patterson struck out 13 men.

MOTOR CLUB TO DRIVE TO INDIANAPOLIS

Some of the members of the Greencastle Motor club are discussing a trip to Indianapolis Sunday to witness the trial spins of the racing cars at the Motor Speedway. Although plans have not been definitely arranged it is believed that most of the members of the club will join in the tour. The plan is being discussed today and a definite plan probably will be announced tomorrow. The plan is to leave Greencastle probably at 10 o'clock and drive to Indianapolis by the way of Danville.

New Suit Filed.

W. P. Dickerson and Albert Grubb, by their attorneys, Hays & Murphy, have filed suit in the circuit court against Daniel Etchison. The complaint alleges that the men purchased a horse from Etchison for $175, and that the horse was represented to be in good condition; that the horse was not in good condition and is not worth more than $25. It further avers that Etchison refused to take the horse back. The complaint asks judgment in the sum of $250.

COPIES OF STAR-DEMOCRAT WANTED TO COMPLETE FILE.

The Herald office is very anxious to secure several copies of the weekly issue of March 28, 1913. Anyone having a copy of this issue will do the office a great favor if they will mail it to the office at once. The office is out of copies of that issue and desires some to be placed on the permanent files, which are to be bound. Look around the house and see if you cannot find your copy of that week and mail it to the Herald.

Assaults Conductor.

James Dillon of Knightsville, son of the Knightsville miner who was killed in a saloon brawl at Seelyville by Famous Williams about two years ago, at 10:30 o'clock last night assaulted Charles Smith, conductor on the T. H. I. & E. while riding east on the 1:28 car, creating no small excitement among the passengers.

Dillon had been to this city and according to the story learned by the police had been imbibing freely in intoxicating liquors. When Conductor Smith attempted to collect his fare of five cents, Dillon struck him a terrible blow in the eye. Smith responded with another blow to Dillon's face which lacerated the skin and brought a free flow of blood. Mortimer O. L. Grimes who rushed back to separate the men was met by Dillon and received a blow in the face. The trainmen finally overpowered Dillon and the car was run back from the Central Indiana Railroad to the city building where Dillon was taken off and lodged in the calaboose.

This afternoon Dillon said he was ready to plead guilty and Esquire Grimes fined him $1 and costs, amounting to about $11.60.—Brazil Times.

TWO NEW COURSES IN THE HIGH SCHOOL.

The board of education of the Greencastle schools plans to have two additional courses added to the curriculum, of the higher grades of the ward schools and the four classes of the high school next fall. They will be domestic science and manual training.

The house standing on the lot purchased by the city for the site of a new high school and known as the old Nutt property, will be used. The house will be remodeled and the necessary equipment installed.

Special instructors for the work will be procured. Several applicants for the positions already have been here and consulted with the school authorities. When the instructors are definitely chosen they, together with the school board and school superintendent, will make definite plans in regard to the courses.

The seventh and eighth grades of the ward schools will be given courses in the two studies. Each of the four high school classes also will be given work. A women teacher probably will be retained to teach the domestic science and a man for the manual training work.

MONON AGENT AT QUINCY PENSIONED

After fifty-one years of practically continuous service in the office Dolph Orrell, the Monon agent at Quincy, has resigned. The railroad company will give him a pension of $1 a day for the remainder of his life. Probably no railroad man connected with the Monon can show a like period of service and it is doubtful if many can be found in the state. Mr. Orrell really did not want to resign, preferring to spend his entire life in the harness, but failing health made it necessary for him to get outside and away from business cares. Orrell began work in the Quincy office in 1862.

1,000 KNIGHTS PARADE AT ANNUAL CONCLAVE

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., May 14.—More than 1,000 Knights Templar in uniform marched today in the parade which was a feature of the annual state convocation of the order. Accompanied by four bands, the uniformed delegations marched through the principal streets with varying formations.

In the front rank immediately behind the Crawfordsville Band, Raper Commandery No. 1 of Indianapolis marched. In the second division the Purdue University Band led the commandery from Lafayette. Leading the third division was the Muncie commandery, preceded by the Muncie Band. The fourth division was led by the Jamestown Boys Band.

The grand officers of the state organization, rode at the rear of the procession in autos. Following the parade the Raper Commandery of Indianapolis assembled on North Washington street, near the Masonic Temple, and gave an exhibition drill. The maneuvers were witnessed by thousands.

After this exhibition the general commandery of the state met at the Masonic Temple for the first formal session. Past Commander Emerson Ballard of this city delivered the address of welcome, to which Right Eminent Commander Charles M. Zion made the response on behalf of the visiting delegates.

This afternoon all the visiting knights and ladies were taken to the Country Club in autos, where a buffet luncheon was served. Tonight the visitors attended a ball and reception at the Masonic Temple, given in honor of Right Eminent Grand Commander Charles M. Zion.

The second day's sessions of the Grand Commandery will begin at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. While this session is in progress the visiting ladies will be taken for an automobile trip around the city.

The convocation will close with the morning session. This is the second convocation which has been held outside of Indianapolis, and there is said to be a movement on foot to hold future meetings in other cities.

DEATH OF MRS. W. H. ALLEN IN LOS ANGELES, CAL.

Mrs. W. H. Allen, a former resident of Greencastle, died at her home in Los Angeles, Cal., Sunday afternoon after an extended illness. A message announcing Mrs. Allen's death was received here this morning by Mrs. O. H. Smith, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Allen. Mrs. Allen leaves her husband and one son, Robert. The funeral will be held in Los Angeles; burial in a cemetery in that city. Mrs. Allen, formerly Miss Wilson, was a daughter of the late Rev. Wilson, at one time pastor of the old Robert's Chapel, a Methodist church located at the present site of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Allen's husband formerly conducted a drug store here, later moving to Indianapolis and then to Los Angeles. Mrs. Allen will be remembered by many of the older citizens.

Ten Attorneys in Ditch Case.

Ten attorneys, five on each side, are participating in the damage suit of Philander S. Mace against George Weideroder, a Clay county damage suit, which was called for trial in the Putnam court Monday. He is suing for damages because, he says, water draining off the defendant's land has injured his property. Hays & Murphy, Stimson & Tilley, and C. G. Scofield, represent Mace, while A. W. Knight, A. O. Miller, Allee & James and T. W. Hutchinson represent the defendant. It will take ten days to try the case.

In the case of John A. von Spreckels against Clifford Duell and Zaring C. Duell, which resulted in a hung jury when tried several months ago, a judgment against Clifford Duell has been made. The part of the suit against Zaring Duell has been dismissed. A similar action has been taken in the suit of John Feller against Clifford and Zaring Duell. The first case resulted from the sale of a stallion.

"BABE" CONKLIN MAKING GOOD AS A FEDERAL LEAGUE UMPIRE.

"Babe" Conklin, a Greencastle, Ind., product long connected with baseball, was the field ump at the local Federal League park yesterday. Conklin is a former infielder and college coach. In his day on the diamond, and it was not long ago, Conklin was considered one of the cleverest fielders of ground balls ever turned out of Indiana. He spent his time in the leagues as a player and then retired to coaching and umpiring. He coached DePauw and later started out as an ump in the Kitten League. He umpired at Pittsburgh and Cleveland before coming here yesterday, and John T. Powers, president of the new organization, is out with a boost for the Hoosier. Indianapolis Star.

CARRIE NATION TACTICS USED ON POOL ROOM.

Because a local pool room proprietor allowed her son, who is not of age, to play billiards and pool in his place of business after she had repeatedly warned him not to do so, a Bloomington mother visited the room last Saturday and started a rough house in Carrie Nation style.

The woman entered room to find some fifteen young men standing about the tables playing pool, and among the number was her son. She walked up to the table where a game was in progress and seizing the billiard cue out of her son's hand, threw it across the room. She then picked up the balls one by one off the table and began hurling them across the room. The habitues of the place scurried in every direction some dodging behind the counters and stove and others crawling under the tables. The woman barely missed the hanging chandelier with one cue and with one of the balls made a good sized dent in a cuspidor. Then she attacked the proprietor and informed him in no uncertain language what she thought of him. It is said the woman intends to swear out an affidavit against the proprietor who has paid a number of fines before for allowing minors to frequent and play in his place.—The Bloomington Daily World.

NEW BAGGAGE RULES ARE EFFECTIVE JUNE 1.

Under the new baggage rules which become effective on June 1, with the approval of the interstate commerce commission, the size of the trunks and other baggage will be limited to forty-five inches as the maximum dimension of any measurement. The baggage regulations in effect at present will not be revised to any extent beyond the new rule on the size of the parcels.

The rules governing the handling of baggage provide that any parcel up to 150 pounds in weight and within the measurement described is hauled free on each adult ticket and seventy-five pounds on each half ticket. Two hundred and fifty pounds is the maximum weight of any piece or parcel which will be handled as baggage. The new baggage rules provide that the parcels exceeding forty-five inches in dimensions for any measurement will be charged on the basis of five pounds excess for each inch or fraction thereof over forty-five inches. Gabular, dome or protruder measurements are not excepted. The maximum measurement of the baggage has been fixed at seventy-two inches and anything larger than this will not be transported on passenger trains. An exception is made, however, with regard to flexible cases containing whips used as samples by salesmen for sadlery concerns. Scenery for public entertainments is also excepted. The new regulations do not apply on immigrant baggage checked at port of landing.

The excess baggage rate is based on the scale of sixteen and two-thirds per cent., of the first-class ticket per hundred pounds. For example, a passenger with a piece of baggage weighing 200 pounds would be charged for fifty pounds excess, or at the rate of one-tenth the charge for the first class ticket between the points of departure and destination. The minimum charge for excess baggage is twenty-five cents.

LAST UNIVERSITY SERVICE OF THE YEAR

In the last University Service of the school year, President George Richmond Grose in Meharry hall Sunday afternoon preached before a large congregation. President Grose preached on "The Church of the Living God." Special music by the university choir and Professor Barnum featured the service.

President Grose based his sermon on the relation of the church to the civilized world. He pointed out that the church's support was necessary for the success of any great movement or enterprise. All great advancements in education, civilization, etc., owe their success to the strength acquired through the church.

That the church is not only a reformer but a maker, was brought out clearly by President Grose. Movements of great import, events of nation-wide and world-wide significance, in most instances, are instigated by the church. The world-peace movement and temperance cause were given as illustrations.

The following was the program of the services:

Hymn 416.
Apostles' Creed.
Prayer, Dr. H. A. Gobin.
Lord's Prayer.
University choir, "Almighty God."
Mozart.
Scripture Reading.
Offertory, "Largo," Handel, Mr. Barnum.
Sermon, "The Church of the Living God," President George R. Grose.
Hymn 210.
Benediction.

Motorists Have a Narrow Escape.

A. H. Bradford and family of Mecca had a narrow escape from a serious accident about 8 o'clock Saturday night when their auto plunged off the hill being made on the water works hill road just north of the Walnut creek bridge. Mr. Bradford did not see that the road was being repaired until too close to stop. When the wheels of the machine struck the loose dirt they turned the car half way around and it plunged down the embankment. Fortunately, when the machine turned and went down the embankment it did not turn over. Mr. Bradford stopped the car at the bottom of the embankment and found that he was on the cut-off being used as a road. The machine was not damaged and they drove on to town. They were coming here to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hixon. Mr. Bradford Sunday morning went to scene of the close escape. He measured the track in the mud and it showed that he had applied his brakes so hard when coming down the hill that the wheels slid for forty-five feet.

A New School For Limesdale.

Arrangements are being made for the construction of a two-room brick school house at Limesdale, to replace the old structure which has been used for many years. GREENCASTLE TRACTION CREW IN WRECK AT WEST OF BRAZIL

BRAZIL, Ind., May 17.—Daniel Watts, of Seelyville, was injured, and several passengers were frightened Friday night when the east-bound interurban on the T. H. I. & E. struck the last west-bound car at Miami, six miles west of Brazil. The west-bound car had started to run into a switch to let the east-bound car go by, but the trolley jumped the wire and the conductor was working to get it back on the wire when the accident happened.

The east-bound car was in the charge of conductor Hirt and motorman Hawkins, of Greencastle. The motorman threw on the brake and ran to the rear of the car. Hirt and Watts were standing on the rear platform and jumped Watts being slightly injured when he fell. The side of the east-bound car was ripped off and the windows on the side of the west-bound car were broken. The cars could not continue the trip.

Mrs. Margaret Kelley is in Lafayette called by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Ward Arbogust.

Two Charged With Speeding.

Affidavits for the arrests of Charles H. Barnaby and Andrew B. Hanna, charging them with exceeding the automobile speed limit, were filed before Mayor Miller on Monday. The affidavits were sworn out by Marshal Johns. Mayor Miller stated this morning that the offenders will probably be given a preliminary hearing tomorrow morning. A dozen or more have been summoned.

The two motorists were racing, according to Marshal Johns, and were going considerably faster than twenty miles an hour. They were driving west of Washington street and as they neared the southwest corner of the square were going "neck and neck," it is claimed. Marshal Johns attempted to stop them but his hand waving was unheeded, he says.

One of the drivers came near running the officer down, according to the latter's statement. If the motorists fight the charges and should the cases come to trial they probably will be largely attended.

LIGHTNING STOPS THE INTERURBAN.

Scarcely had repairs been made upon the Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern Traction company wires at Pecksburg, which had been burned in two by a bolt of lightning at 12:59 o'clock at noon Thursday when another bolt struck the wires at some other point and again put the line out of commission.

The first trouble was at Pecksburg. The wires were repaired by linemen and at 1:10 o'clock the current was turned on again and traffic resumed. Just five minutes later another bolt of lightning struck the wires and traffic was off again. The second bolt struck near Clayton. Traffic was resumed again at 3:30 o'clock.

DEATH KNELL OF THE BAINBRIDGE RACE TRACK

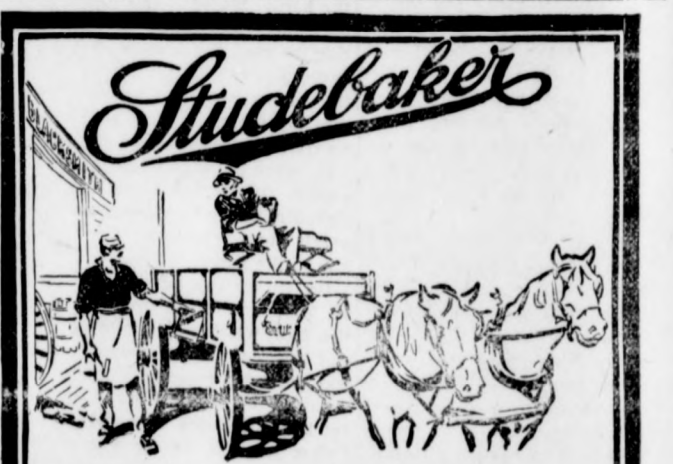

The death knell of the Bainbridge race track was sounded this morning when the suit of Samuel Miller against Fred Swaim and others, was compromised by Mr. Miller paying Swaim and others $500 for the cancellation of a lease on the land, just west of Bainbridge, on which the old fair grounds and race track were located.

The land formerly was owned by Mrs. Alice Ader Davis. Before selling it to Mr. Miller she had leased it for five years to Swaim and others. Mr. Miller sued to gain possession of the land; Swaim claiming that the lease had three more years to run. The compromise ended the litigation.

Years ago a fair was held on the grounds each year. Lately however, the old race track had been used as a training track by Mr. Swaim and other race horse drivers.

An Excellent Cough Medicine.

The soothing and healing properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy make it especially valuable for coughs and colds. It is pleasant and safe to take and contains no narcotic. For sale by all dealers.

"Yes Sir! Studebaker wagons are made to back up a reputation."

"I know, because wagons of every make come into my shop for repairs, and I have a chance to see how few are Studebakers."

That's the opinion of thousands of blacksmiths who know the quality of Studebaker wagons.

The owners never regretted that they bought Studebakers.

Tested materials, accurate workmanship insure a wagon unequalled for durability, and this careful selection of wood, iron, steel, paint and varnish has been a fixed rule with the Studebaker Company for sixty years. That is why a Studebaker wagon runs easiest and lasts longest. It is built on honor.

Whether you live in town or country, there is a Studebaker vehicle to fill your requirements for business or pleasure—and harness of every description made as carefully as are Studebaker vehicles.

"Pittsburgh Perfect" Fence

Because it's Welded, you can take it Down and Put it Up Without Injuring the Fence

That's a good point to consider. Many a time you would shift a line of fencing from, say, the bull pasture to the hog lot—if it didn't destroy the efficiency of the fence.

In "Pittsburgh Perfect", the only fence with electrically welded joints, the stays are permanently joined to the line wires.

Made in Different Styles for FIELD, FARM, RANCH, LAWN, CHICKEN, POULTRY and RABBIT YARD and GARDEN

Ask your dealer for "Pittsburgh Perfect" and insist on his furnishing it. Do not allow him to persuade you that some other fence is just as good. If he doesn't sell it, write us direct.

REV. TILLOTSON
GIVES ADDRESS

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF THE
WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPER-ANCE UNION HELD AT HOME OF MRS. T. E. EVANS YESTERDAY.

REV. BEEMAN SPEAKS

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union held an intensely interesting meeting on Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. T. E. Evans. Devotions were conducted by Rev. B. D. Beck, who read passages from the book of Joshua. Prayer was offered by Rev.
H. H. Allen.

The address of the afternoon was by Rev. Dr. Tillotson, who spoke on "Some Phases of the Temperance Question." The speaker expressed himself as wishing especially to emphasize the encouraging phases of the subject. The temperance people have had some setbacks in the past few years and have been put at a disadvantage, but the sentiment in the county is as strong or stronger for temperance than ever before. People throughout the nation are determined to find some way, some means, of getting rid of the saloon.

While the temperance people are not in this class, there are many people who are indifferent unless their own boys are concerned. They look at the question largely from the financial standpoint. It is encouraging phase that people are getting to see that vast sums of money go for that which does not benefit a community. The economic phase is not often brought up any more, but when it is brought up, it is the old argument that the overthrow of the liquor traffic destroys business. In the four years that North Carolina has been rid of the saloon, bank stock has increased in that state about $4,000,000 and bank deposits have increased there about $44,000,000. Look at the situation in Kansas. The neighboring state of Missouri has about $300 per capita in wealth for every man, woman and child. Just across the line, Kansas has more than five times that amount, or $1,700 per capita.

The liquor interests claim that they are doing a great deal to support the government. The revenue sent from the revenue office at Terre Haute to the government takes, every day, vast sums of money from this little corner of Indiana. The money does not go to the people living there, except for the brewers, etc. When the people of Chicago and other large cities see that they are sending out vast sums of money that ought to stay there, they will get rid of the saloons. Many are getting to see this. Then, while saloon property rents high, the owner of the buildings is the one that profits thereby, as all the adjoining property is injured by its proximity to the saloon in that it brings less rent.

This economic argument is needed for some. A great many people are indifferent unless their own boys are concerned. Dr. Tillotson expressed himself as willing to give all of his money and his time, if it were only to save one boy and that boy in the farthest corner of the farthest county.

Another encouraging phase: there never has been so much agitation for woman suffrage as now. The final fight will be with the liquor traffic.
Other men may be indifferent, but the liquor traffic will not. Perhaps God never intended that we should accomplish the overthrow of the liquor traffic in this country until we do the just thing by giving women the ballot. No doubt the liquor interests of Indiana know that the very day the women get the vote, their doom will be sealed.

Certain men who have studied the question very seriously believe that the time has now come for national prohibition. The passing of the Webb Bill has helped convince people that there is an opportunity to pass and vance temperance legislation. We ought to be glad that we live in a day when there is opportunity to engage in the fight. There is no telling what a few years may bring forth. The broken-up condition as far as the political situation is concerned, is more favorable for reform than is a fixed condition. In the local fight for temperance and reform, the church people of this town could bring about almost anything they set their hands to.

It has been determined that the names of those signing a petition for an election for the return of the saloons to Greencastle should be made public. No man signing such a petition ought to expect anything else. A paper bearing his name as a petitioner to bring the saloons back to Greencastle will be put into every home in Greencastle and practically every house in the county.

In the general discussion following
Dr. Tillotson's address, Rev. G. H. L.
Beeman was called upon and responded with a few eloquent words.
Rev. H. H. Allen, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Washington, Indiana was a visitor at the meeting;
he is visiting his daughter, Miss Flossie Allen, a student at DePauw.
He expressed himself in sympathy with Dr. Tillotson's statement that he would be willing to give all of his money and time, if it were only to save one boy and that one boy in the farthest country. "The Christian religion demands that we do just as much for other boys or girls as for our own. 'I would just as soon have a drunken son as a drunken son-in-law.'" Rev. Allen agreed with Dr.
Tillotson that women would help bring about national prohibition when they got the ballot. "When we get national prohibition, all the kindred evils, the white slave traffic, gambling, etc., will go," Mrs. Hale mother of Miss Hortense and Mr. Ivo Hale of the university, was introduced to the audience. In a few well-chosen words, she told of the W. C.
T. U. at her home in Mount Vernon and of the evils existing in the neighboring city of Evansville, and urged the people of Greencastle to keep the saloons out of the town for the sake of the young people of the town and of the university. "You do not know now, all over the United States, people are interested in conditions here," said Mrs. Hale. Rev. B. D. Beck made a few time remarks; he expressed regret that all of the people of this city could not have heard Dr. Tillotson's address.

After the interesting discussion, hostess served refreshments furnished for the occasion by Mr. Priest, to whom the union extended a vote of thanks. Appreciation was expressed, also, for the flowers furnished by Mrs. Hattie Moore. The next meeting will be on Flower Mission Day. It will be in charge of the superintendent of that department, Mrs. Hattie Moore, and will be held at the home of Miss Dell Miller.

Signed by the Secretary.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Coburn Players will return to the DePauw campus on Tuesday.
May twenty-seventh, when they will present "Comedy of Errors" in the afternoon and "Othello" in the evening. One of the noteworthy features of the performances of the Coburn Players is the quality of acting by the members of the company. There are no stars, but even the most unimportant part has been most carefully studied and the stage management is simple and effective.

Mr. Coburn has made a great point of the clearness of diction, believing that to appreciate Shakespeare no word can be lost. He insists on this both from the player who has but one line to the most important member of the company. As a result, the performances are exceptionally interesting and enjoyable. The scenery is designed to preserve the correct atmosphere of the period and form a background for the player, rather than to be so big and massive that it becomes obtrusive.

Of Interest to Women

Remarkable Change of Infant of today—New Babyless Language May Be Responsible—Grandma's Tale of Daily Care Administered to the "Naughty" Imp of 50 Years Ago.

It may be owing to natural progression or to mothers' meetings, or even to the new babyless language that the modern mother has introduced into the nursery, but for some reason or another infants have changed most remarkably.

Fifty years ago a baby in the house made a great deal more fuss and trouble than it does at the present day. Judging from an unprejudiced grandmother's description of her progeny of long ago, one is forced to the conclusion that they must have been squalling, red-faced little creatures, whose deportment was most ungraceful and undignified. Evidently they were not possessed with an atom of self-respect and usually succeeded in upsetting the whole household.

Just ask grandma how her babies used to act. You will be a pessimist before she has had finished her story. She will relate tales that will harrow your soul. Your exhausted ear will hear all about the long nights of croup, when the youngster had to be shaken by the heels, stood on its head, hung out of the window, slapped on the back, greased about the nose, poulticed all over and compelled to swallow spoonfuls of sleet melted over a smoky lamp.

If they didn't have croup they had colic, which required trotting and bouncing and floor walking, rocking the cradle, not to mention pints of catnip tea. In those days catnip tea was omnipresent. There was always a cup of it brewing on the back of the stove in every properly conducted household. When a dose was administered the attendance of the entire family was required. In many cases the farmhands had to be called in to assist.

It took one person to hold the squirming infant, another to grasp its feet and still another to keep its chubby fists from doing damage to the many faces bending solicitously above it. Somebody held the spoon, while mother adjusted one or more extra bibs. When all was ready a cold-blooded relative grasped the slippery little nose and in a twinkling the spoon and its contents were spilled over the bibs and trickling down baby's neck.

If nothing else was the matter, then its food didn't agree with it, or it was cutting teeth or had broken out in a rash. It was in a chronic state of yawning tacks and pennies. It was always hungry and never sleepy, except in the daytime, when there was company that particularly wanted to see its eyes. All that day it would slumber so sweetly and afterward make the night hideous with its screams for light or somebody to amuse it.

All the jokes about walking the floor were not jokes at all. Newspaper pictures were not caricatures; they were drawn from history and are all that is left to remind us of the old-fashioned baby.

The twentieth century infant would not deign to imitate the conduct of its ancestral juvenile. In the first place, more than half the ills that a baby was heir to in the long ago have been forgotten or have been eliminated; consequently there is less crying and not nearly so much attention demanded.

In the modern baby the imp of the perverse has been to a great extent conquered. If it lies awake at night it is really in pain and not rampaging because its mother is worn out or the poor father unusually sleepy.

An investigation of the subject reveals that in these times babies generally sleep soundly at night, eat regularly, take one or more naps during the day and are usually well-behaved, normal children.

They do not insist upon being rocked to sleep, nor annoy those within hearing distance by howling hour after hour just because they cannot have the electroliner for a toy or the auto horn to cut their teeth upon.

The transformation does not seem so remarkable when one gets down to the philosophy of the matter. How can two human beings act alike, when one is talked to like this, "Mover's little lam, tum det oo miki," and the other is addressed, "Dorothy, come get your milk."

Little Load Lifters. When the rubber water bottle leaks, fill it with hot water ready for use and place a patch of surgeon's plaster over the hole and hold it in place until the heat causes adhesion.

If kept in a cup and covered with cold water, yolks of eggs will keep fresh several days.

When finely chopped nuts are needed for cake, salads or sandwiches, run the nuts through the mincing machine. Wring channels out of the soapy water without rinsing; when it dries it is soft and serviceable, instead of stiff.

Table oilcloth is the best material to cover schoolbooks with, as it is water-proof and can be kept clean. The pretty colored patterns are very attractive to the children's eyes.

A PARSIMONIOUS PEER.

Marquis of Westminster Looked After the Pennies.

The late Marquis of Westminster had queer economies, according to V. G. Thorpe, in "The Still Life of the Middle Temple." On one occasion he went to Grosvenor House and informed the butler he had brought his lunch with him, producing a penny saveloy. It was duly served up on silver plates; he ate half and directed the remainder to be kept till he came again.

He was equally parsimonious with envelopes, readdressing to his own correspondents those he himself had received. There is a story of his calling upon a local clergyman and handing him a small packet which he would find useful. The vicar was puzzled. Was it for the schools or church restoration, or the new re-dos, or the poor? It was too light, however, for money, unless a check or bank notes. At last he opened it; it contained all his own visiting cards, left at Motcomb with great frequency for a long period.

Birds Killed by Golf Balls.

A lady playing at the Hendon (England) Golf Club recently made a mangle shot which lofted the ball. This in its flight struck a swift on the wing and both ball and bird fell straight to the ground.

The incident though remarkable, is not quite unprecedented, for in the Field of September 12, 1891, there appeared a notice of a swallow killed by a golf ball and another struck by a cricket ball was reported in the Field of August 25, 1894. A lark was killed on the ground by a golf ball (June 20, 1908) was not so remarkable a shot, as the bird in that case was stationary. It was, however, not the result of skill but of accident.

The Turk is a Fatalist.

War is one thing that can rouse the Turk from his apathy. When the fight is over, the Mussulman returns at once to his "Kief." Why get excited about politics, science, philosophy and literature? Is not everything foreordained? Leave it to Allah. With a whole nation in this frame of mind, it is not strange that the Turk has neither thirst for knowledge nor any great passion. It is not strange that he has but little curiosity and no desire to travel, and that officials display such ignorance in regard to the elementary things.

Entitled to All Praise.

"He endeared himself to guardians, visitors, inmates and staff, and his beautiful Christian demeanor, constant cheerfulness and good temper made him beloved by all," is the epitaph of the Huddersfield, England, guardians upon a pauper who, after spending 20 years in the parish workhouse, recently died there at the age of 94. "Even in a palace life may be lived well," says Matthew Arnold; but most people would find it quite as hard, if not harder, to maintain a blameless character in a workhouse.

Coal Gas Product.

According to the reports of the geological survey, 58,000,000,000 cubic feet of coal gas was made in the United States during 1907 by 513 companies. Of this product 54,600,000,000 cubic feet was sold for $36,327,897 and the remaining 3,400,000,000 cubic feet was "lost, strayed or stolen." The average value of the 1907 product was 66 cents a thousand feet. The product of 1906 averaged 81.4 cents a thousand feet, which shows that gas is becoming cheaper.

The Post Hole Mystery.

On the farm they make post holes with dynamite. It saves digging. They collect all the earth that's thrown up and put it back in the hole around the post. And then they carry more earth to the spot. The earth removed to make the hole isn't sufficient in quantity to fill it again, even with the addition of the post, which takes up much space. The farmhand doesn't know why this is so, but it is.

No Chinatown Drunkard.

A drunken Chinaman is a rare sight in the streets of New York. The unofficial governments of Chinatown which administer the high, the low and the middle justice inexorably takes care of this. After the first offense John is warned. A repetition incurs his deportation to China. The decrees of Chinatown are always carried out.

The Scrubwoman's Lunch.

"I used to let my scrubwoman get herself a little lunch," said the city dweller. "It's the nice thing to do, I know, and I like to do it, but I had to quit in self-defense. She took an hour to get her lunch and eat it and charged me extra for the time she put in."

The Busy Biographer.

"Don't you want to live in the minds of posterity?" "Yes," answered Senator Sorghum; "although it is a little discouraging to see how much more interest posterity seems to take in a great man's weaknesses and peculiarities than in his national achievements."

Easy.

"In what condition was the Patriarch Job at the end of his life?" asked a Sunday-school teacher of a quiet-looking boy at the foot of the class. "Dead," calmly replied the quiet-looking boy.—Illustrated Bits.

Traffic Shows Good Increase.

Traffic between the eastern and western coasts of the United States by way of isthmus, railways and steamship lines amounted to $40,000,000 in value in 1908, a marked increase over any earlier year.

STERN HAND OF LAW WINS IN AUTO RACE.

Never has Greencastle been thrown into such a frenzy of excitement as this week. The whole town is agog over the thrilling race between Andrew Hanna, in his Ford, and Charles Barnaby in his Cadillac, which started on east Washington street recently and ended in the court of Mayor Miller, whose guardian of the law, Marshal Lemuel Johns, swore out affidavits charging the speeders with committing grave crimes.

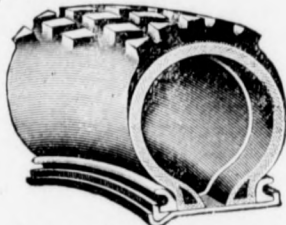

The story of the race is most thrilling. For weeks, unknown to the citizens of Greencastle, both men had been working for hours tuning up their powerful racing machines. Thousands of gallons of gasoline and hundreds of gallons of the best grades of lubricating oils have been used by the men in getting their space-eaters into the pink of condition.

After these weeks of preparation, both men declared themselves to be as hard as steel and ready for a gruelling contest. Their monster machines, they stated, were tuned up as fine as an Elgin watch and capable to tear off the miles at a rate which would astound the populace.

Mr. Barnaby had equipped his machine, with the greatest tire known to the racing world.

Mr. Hanna, however, who had bended his endeavors to reduce the weight of his car, used the plain tread tire.

The latter was forced to resort to this because of his selection of William Kreigh, the great automobile mechanical authority, to act as his chauffeur during the race. Mr. Barnaby carried as his assistant, his son, Howard, whose ability is too well known to warrant comment.

Early on the afternoon of the race the two drivers were out giving their cars their final preparation for the race.

(Mr. Barnaby giving his car its final workout for the contest. The machine was photographed by J. O. Kodak, while going at a speed estimated at 10 miles an hour.)

After all preparations for the contest had been concluded the two contestants met on east Washington street. After shaking hands and arranging rules to govern the contest the speeders lined up for the start. By agreement each driver was to begin cranking his machine upon a signal to be given by Mr. Kreigh, who blew a blast upon the horn of the Ford car.

(The bulb of the horn upon which the blast was blown.)

The cunningness of the Cadillac driver was shown here. His car, being equipped with a self-started, he simply pressed a lever and his car was off with a roar which could be heard for miles. Hanna was forced to run to the front of his car and crank it. Here he met some disaster for the carburetor had to be primed before the engine would start. Before the Ford driver finally gained his seat and was off, the roar of the Cadillac could be heard in the distance. The great cloud of smoke and dust completely hid the leader from the vision of the fast flying Ford and its plucky driver.

Keyed up to the highest pitch Hanna took out to overtake the leader. The leading car being much heavier, was forced to slow up to take the hurdle at the corner of Washington and Locust street. Mr. Hanna, his car shooting out great sheets of flame, gained much on the leader at that point and as the men reached the College avenue corner, there was hardly a hair's breadth separating the powerful monsters. Flames were shooting from their exhausts and the roar of their motors sounded like the battle of Bunker Hill.

Onto the smooth pavement of the square they went. And here is where disaster met them. Marshal Johns, an innocent bystander, heard the roar and saw the great cloud of smoke. A stray dog whined from fright. The marshal rushed to the curb just in time to see a streak of blue smoke go by.

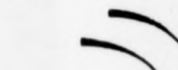

(Picture of the machines as they passed the marshal.)

Frantically he waved to the men and called to them to stop. His calling, were not heeded however, by the dust degraded pilots, who believed that the marshal was waving them on their way.

As the cars turned off of Washington street to go north on Jackson, a murmur of fear was heard, as the Barnaby machine which was slightly in the lead was seen to skid a bit.

Tracks of the Barnaby machine as it turned onto Jackson street. The tracks, which were photographed by a staff artist immediately following the near accident, plainly show how the machine skidded.

The race ended at Franklin street and although each driver claimed a victory a stranger who happened to be standing at the Eiteljorge Meat Market at the time, declares that the contest was a draw, not a eyelash separating the contestants.

But here is where the stern hand of the law stepped in.

The stern hand of the law.

Both men returned their machines to their garages where they were carefully groomed by a large force of chauffeurs. The drivers at this time did not know that they had offended the mayor by their friendly contest. It was rumored, however, that the marshal carried a stop watch in his pocket and that as soon as he saw the racing machines he pulled it out, wound it up and timed the drivers. By his timing, it is said, the men were going somewhere between 5 and 500 miles an hour.

The next morning the stern hand of the law exerted its powers and the two men were served with warrants charging them with exceeding the speed limit.

Mayor Miller, whom the drivers faced, armed with fast driving.

Rev. C. L. Airhart will go to Elmdale Friday to preach the funeral of Mrs. Amy Hutchison.

Mrs. Sarah C. Billman, who has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Masten, and her nephew, Jesse Wells, has returned home. Mrs. Billman and Mrs. Masten were entertained at dinner on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Masten's grand-mother, Mrs. Charles Wood.

Fred Gordon, of Indianapolis, a shoe salesman, was here Wed. Mr. Gordon formerly lived in Greencastle and Bainbridge and has many friends here. This season he is using an automobile in his work. He has a large sample trunk on the rear of the car and drives from town to town.

WASHINGTON, Ind., May 21.—J. W. Ogden, judge, on his own motion, continued for six weeks, the four charges of embezzlement and two charges of defacing public records, against Thomas Nugent, former county auditor, when the cases came before the court today.

Judge Ogden said there were witnesses present for other cases and that the trial of the Nugent cases now would disarrange his docket. The cases were set for trial Tuesday, but the Wurtz divorce case had not been concluded at that time; so the Nugent cases were continued until 10 o'clock this morning. All witnesses were recognized over until September 15 under a $50 bond.

Thomas Newgent is a former Putnam county man and is well known here.

After Long Suffering

Women Are Constantly Being Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Worth mountains of gold," says one woman. Another says, "I would not give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for all the other medicines for women in the world." Still another writes, "I should like to have the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound thrown on the sky with a searchlight so that all suffering women could read and be convinced that there is a remedy for their ills."

We could fill a newspaper ten times the size of this with such quotations taken from the letters we have received from grateful women whose health has been restored and suffering banished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Why has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound accomplished such a universal success? Why has it lived and thrived and kept on doing its glorious work among the sick women of the world for more than 30 years?

Simply and surely because of its sterling worth. The reason no other medicine has ever approached its success is plainly and simply because there is no other medicine so good for women's ills.

Here are two letters that just came to the writer's desk—only two of thousands, but both tell a comforting story to every suffering woman who will read them—and be guided by them.

FROM MRS. D. H. BROWN.

Iola, Kansas.—"During the Change of Life I was sick for two years. Before I took your medicine I could not bear the weight of my clothes and was bloated very badly. I doctored with three doctors but they did me no good. They said nature must have its way. My sister advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I purchased a bottle. Before it was gone the bloating left me and I was not so sore. I continued taking it until I had taken 12 bottles. Now I am stronger than I have been for years and can do all my work, even the washing. Your medicine is worth its weight in gold. I cannot praise it enough. If more women would take your medicine there would be more healthy women. You may use this letter for the good of others."—Mrs. D. H. Brown, 809 North Walnut Street, Iola, Kan.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

MRS. WILLIAMS SAYS:

Elkhart, Ind.—"I suffered for 14 years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sensitive Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

ALLEGED THAT LADOGA MEN SNARRED FISH.

A number of prominent business men of Ladoga were arraigned in the circuit court last night and today as the result of grand jury indictments returned against them charging illegal fishing. Seven men from the Clark township town were included in the list. They are Willard Foster, Ed Ross, Richard Gill, Prof. William O. Winkler, Peter Parker, William Cochran and Wallace Quinley. It is understood that witnesses examined by the grand jury testified that the seven men had violated the fish and game laws by breaking through the ice and snaring fish. All of the men furnished bond of $75 and were released. When their cases come up for trial it is expected that no little interest will be aroused both because of the prominence of the men implicated and the fact that it is believed some of the witnesses testified against the men for reasons other than to help aid the law.

The arrest of these men was astonishing to Ladoga citizens generally as it was unexpected to the defendants.—Crawfordsville Journal.

Very Remarkable Cure of Liver Complaint.

Mr. Albert Walker, of Proclous, W. Va., suffered intense pain in the stomach and right side at intervals for fifteen years. He had consulted eight or ten physicians and while they all agreed that he had liver trouble, they failed to relieve him. He was eventually cured by Chamberlain's Tablets. If you have any trouble with your stomach or liver, these tablets will certainly do you good. For sale by all dealers.

FAILS TO FIND DISEASE IN HENDRICKS CATTLE.

The Danville Republican says: "The state authorities have taken another whirl at J. L. Higgins' cattle and this time decide there is nothing the matter with them although Mr. Higgins says he would like for people to see them and pass judgment whether there is anything the matter with them."

"While a legal quarantine was never ordered against the cattle, yet Mr. Higgins says he was directed not to move them under penalty of being responsible for disease in other cattle that might develop. To add to his embarrassment a new official, Dr. Nelson took charge of the office of state veterinarian. Last week, Mr. Higgins and a number of his farmer friends had a meeting with Governor Ralston and the whole affair was canvassed and it was decided to make a thorough examination of the cattle."

"Accordingly Dr. Nelson visited the cattle and the next day Mr. Higgins received the following letter from Dr. Nelson—

"Dear Sir: After again visiting and examining the herd of cattle owned by you on this 7th day of May, 1913, and having previously visited the same herd on April 15, 1913, accompanied by Dr. J. R. Archer and on that date being unable to find any evidence of disease among them and today being accompanied by Dr. George H. Roberts and being as well as myself being unable to discover any evidence of disease among them, I will again repeat the same statement that I made to you on the 15th of April that you are at liberty to handle or dispose of these animals as you may deem proper. Under no circumstances have I since assuming charge of this office placed any quarantine or restriction on the above animals."

"Efforts by Mr. Higgins to have milk from the cows tested by the state authorities proved fruitless. He was told that a tuberculin test for his cattle would show a great many more results than an analysis of the milk and that in few instances could the milk of cattle owned privately be analyzed at the state laboratories because of the great press of work there."

The cattle are owned by J. L. Higgins of Hendricks county, and not J. T. Higgins of this county as was reported in last week's Herald-Democrat. We take this occasion to rectify the error.

Motorcyclists Hit Car.

BRAZIL, Ind., May 15.—Elmer Green and wife, colored, narrowly escaped death by being thrown under an east bound traction car, due here at 6:28 o'clock this evening. Green and his wife were riding a motorcycle, and just as they reached National avenue, the traction car was crossing Walnut street. Green was unable to turn his machine and crashed into the side of the car. The machine was wrecked but neither of the riders was seriously injured.

ENOCH SILLERY IS CONVICTED.

Young Man Who Slashed John Patterson With Knife Is Given Six Months' Jail Sentence and Fined $100.

Enoch Sillery Friday evening began a six-months' term in the county jail, part of the penalty imposed on him for cutting John Patterson about a month ago. Sillery was convicted of committing assault and battery with intent to kill on Patterson, and the jury imposed the sentence together with a $100 fine.

The state introduced its last witness Friday afternoon, C. C. Gillen, attorney for Sillery, announced that the defense would not introduce any evidence, whereupon the arguments were made.

Prosecuting Attorney Sutherland pleaded for a conviction, saying that Sillery was guilty without a doubt. The fact that the defense introduced no evidence was a declaration that it had no defense, according to the prosecutor. Attorney Gillen, in arguing for his client, based his argument on the ground that, although Sillery was guilty of assault, there was no intent to murder.

The case went to the jury about 5 o'clock. After two hours' deliberation the verdict of guilty with the punishment of six months in jail and $100 fine was returned. On the first ballot four of the jurors voted in favor of a penitentiary sentence.

MRS. EUGENE C. LADOGA.

DEAD AT LADOGA.

LADOGA, Ind., May 15.—Mrs. Alice Graybill Ashby, aged 47, wife of Eugene C. Ashby, one of Ladoga's prominent business men and secretary of the Ladoga Building and Loan Fund and Savings Association, died at her home in this place at 5 o'clock this morning, after suffering for two weeks with bronchial pneumonia.

Just before becoming seriously ill Mrs. Ashby consulted a physician who advised her to remain in bed, telling her that her nerves needed a complete rest. Mrs. Ashby was unwilling to give up to her affliction, however, and failed to follow her physician's advice until she was stricken by her fatal illness.

Within a few days she became ill and from the start her condition was serious. At midnight Wednesday she took a turn for the worse and gradually grew weaker till death relieved her. For years Mrs. Ashby had been one of the leaders in social and church affairs. She was a member of the Presbyterian church here. Besides her husband, Mrs. Ashby is survived by her father, Josephus Graybill, one brother, Homer and four children, Mrs. Carl Crawford of Morantown, W. Va., Miss Mary Ashby, who has been teaching in an Iowa school this winter, but who is now at home, Frank and Russell Ashby, both at home.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed, but it is expected that services will be held either Saturday afternoon or Sunday.

NATIONAL BANK FOR CLOVERDALE.

C. A. Rockwell, W. E. Gill, Louis Morrison, Mel Rogers and Dr. E. M. Hurst drove to Clayton and Coatesville Thursday morning for the purpose of investigating the bank buildings of those towns and drove on to Indianapolis Thursday afternoon. The men are forming plans for the new bank building, which will be erected on the corner of Main street and Market where the old hotel building formerly stood.

For the past ten days stock in a national bank has been sold. At present there is little stock left. The capital of the Cloverdale bank will be transferred to the new national bank, and extra shares will be bought by Cloverdale citizens. The capital will be $25,000 or more.

Organization of the new bank will be some time before the end of this year.

Proprietors of the burned district on Main street where the brick block will be built, are considering plans and material furnished by building companies. It is possible that the building will be commenced in a few weeks.—Cloverdale Graphic.

F. A. Arnold has returned from a two-weeks' business trip to Louisiana.

WABASH STUDENTS ARE RIOTOUS.

The rowdy antics of a crowd of twenty-five or more Wabash students Friday night caused considerable feeling and indignation against them. The lads came here from Crawfordsville on a freight train, arriving here a little after midnight. They immediately began what they evidently believed to be sport. During the remainder of the night they paraded the streets, using obscene language, defacing property and committing other acts of rowdiness. Several of the students, it is said, broke into a sorority house on East Seminary street and carried on their riotous conduct.

The students visited the various buildings of the university and did considerable damage. They defaced the buildings and committed acts which were outrages. The conduct of the students will not be tolerated by the DePauw university officials, and it is probable that the affair will be taken up with the Wabash authorities. The acts of the boys has caused considerable feeling.

The affair should not be allowed to pass without a thorough investigation. The damage and trouble to the residents of the city was entirely unprovoked. It is safe to say should DePauw students act likewise at Crawfordsville that the Wabash people would demand an investigation.

About midnight a number of DePauw students, attracted by the loud voices of several of the Wabash students, who were then in the DePauw campus, gathered about the Crawfordsville boys and demanded that they leave. Paddles were used profusely and soon the Wabash lads were on the run. They stopped only after arriving at the Big Four tracks north of town.

SENIOR CLASS OF HIGH SCHOOL AND TEACHERS ENTERTAINED.

The senior high school class was entertained Friday night by Miss Geraldine Thomas at her home on the corner of Locust and Franklin street. Miss Thomas had arranged a lovely program which was carried out in full. It was as follows:

Miss Ethel Merryweather sang a solo with Miss Josephine Rount accompanied and graciously responded to encore. Miss Marguerite Callender made a decided hit with "The Bear Story." Prior to this she gave "Little Boy Blue," reading to a musical setting by Josephine Young.

Mr. Wood Nichols of Indianapolis, a well-known musician, did some wonderful tricks which mystified and amused the company. Later in the evening school songs and popular songs of the day were sung with Miss Ruth Stroube at the piano. The rooms were profusely decorated with garden flowers. Snow balls were used in the front parlor; lilacs of the valley in the back parlor; sermons adorned the dining room; the hall and front veranda were ornamental with bridal wreath—the entire flower scheme being white.

The refreshments were very dainty and carried out the class colors pink and gray. The hostess was ably assisted in doing the honors of the evening by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas, Miss Josephine Young and Miss Adelaide Thomas, Miss Helen Martin, a senior of St. Agnes Academy, Indianapolis, was also a guest.

AND CLOVERDALE CLAIMS TO BE A "DRY" TOWN.

CLOVERDALE, Ind., May 17.—A naturalist of this place recently learned that kingfishers practice conservation. He was walking near a stream, and was attracted by a chattering noise. Creeping up behind a bunch of willows, he saw two kingfishers busily transferring minnows from a shallow pool to a stream. The birds seemed to have eaten their fill and realizing that the minnows must die if left in the pool, where they were stranded, they carefully carried them in their beaks to the running water, possibly for future needs.

"Back Stamping" Given Up.

The "back stamping" of all mail except registered and special delivery letters has been discontinued by the postoffice department. Postmaster Burleson believes that the time saved will expedite delivery, often as much as the time between two deliveries. A similar order a few years ago was rescinded because of many complaints by business men.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.

Jacob Hindelang, of Chelsea, Mich., was ill with stomach trouble and in such bad shape that he lived for two months on lime-water and milk. He then began using Chamberlain's Tablets. He says: "I am seventy-six years of age but never in my life used any medicine that cured in such a short time as Chamberlain's Tablets." For sale by all dealers.

New Suits Filed.

Melville P. Sutherland, by his attorney, W. M. Sutherland, has filed suit in the circuit court against William Collins and others to quiet title to real estate in Floyd township. The track involved consists of about 80 acres.

The suit of the Farmers' Trust Company of Indianapolis against Jacob L. Page, of Hendricks county, has been sent here from Danville on a change of venue. The complaint asks for damages. It is alleged that Page contracted with the trust company for a $14,000 loan on Hendricks county farm lands but after the arrangements had been made refused to take the loan. Instead he borrowed the money from another company, it is averred. The trust company sets out that the expenses in preparing the papers, examining the abstract and arranging for the loan were several hundred dollars, and asks judgment of $400 as repayment.

MARTINSVILLE TO HAVE $50,000 HIGH SCHOOL.

J. W. Gaddis, of Vincennes, architect for the city school board in the preparation of the plans for the new Martinsville high school building, met with the school board Wednesday evening when the plans were approved. Mr. Gaddis remained here today to consult the board further in regard to any matters that may come up concerning the new building.

The estimated cost is fifty thousand dollars, and when completed Martinsville will have one of the handsomest and most conveniently arranged high school buildings in the state for a city of this size. It will be strictly modern in every way.

The board authorized notice to be given to contractors that bids for the construction of the building will be received up to one o'clock Thursday, June 5th, the bids to be placed in the hands of K. I. Nutter, secretary of the board.

The high school building is to be of brick and will face north on Gasfield avenue for a distance of 150 feet. The basement floor will contain the domestic science department—cooking room, dining room, sewing room, girls' and boys' cloak rooms, agricultural science drawing room and manual training department.

On the first floor will be located an auditorium that will seat 700 people with a balcony for 300, a total seating capacity of 1,000; this auditorium will have a regulation stage large enough for the students to put on any class play, with outside entrances for taking in paraphernalia. In addition to the auditorium the first floor will contain a study hall for 150, six class rooms facing north, an art hall and the superintendent's office.

On the second floor will be a study hall that will seat 150, two class rooms, chemical and physical laboratories with a lecture room between girls' and boys' toilet and cloak room and the biology laboratory.

The coal and engine room will be separate from the building.

The members of the school board, W. E. Nutter, K. I. Nutter and B. E. Thornburgh are proceeding with the plans for the new building as fast as practicable, and as soon as the contract is let, will see that the construction work goes ahead with as little delay as possible.

Already quite a number of contractors have signified their intention of bidding on the work.—Martinsville Reporter.

HUGHES DROVE DECREE GRANTED.

The decree of divorce granted Jesse D. Hughes against Clara E. Hughes was recorded on the court docket last Saturday. The docket shows that the decree was given to Hughes on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. He is given the custody of the two children.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ledbetter spent Sunday in Coatesville.

Uncle Mike Higgins, aged 93, will attend the paying of the corner stone of the court house if he is able. Should Uncle Mike be spared to see the new building finished, he will have seen four court houses in Hendricks county—one of log, a second one of brick with offices in another building, built in the court house yard, a third of brick and the fourth the one now building. By the way, any information regarding the new court house, of logs, will be thankfully received at this office. In connection, it is of interest to note that Mrs. Henry Howell has a letter that was used to unlock the treasurer's office in the second court house, Danville Republican.

Comparative Digestibility of Food

Made with different Baking Powders

From a Series of Elaborate Chemical Tests:

An equal quantity of bread (biscuit) was made with each of three different kinds of baking powder—cream of tartar, phosphate, and alum—and submitted separately to the action of the digestive fluid, each for the same length of time.

The relative percentage of the food digested is shown as follows:

Bread made with
Royal Cream of Tartar Powder:

100 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with
phosphate powder:

68 1/2 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with alum powder:

67 3/4 Per Cent. Digested

These tests, which are absolutely reliable and unprejudiced, make plain a fact of great importance to everyone: Food raised with Royal, a cream of tartar Baking Powder, is shown to be entirely digestible, while the alum and phosphate powders are found to largely retard the digestion of the food made from them.

Undigested food is not only wasted food, but it is the source of very many bodily ailments.

T. C. Bond has been having his house repaired.

Samuel Colglazier visited here on Tuesday.

Wm. Bond made a business trip to Indianapolis Monday.

An echo of Texas land frauds, in which J. A. Witz, formerly an Indianapolis real estate dealer, was said to have sold ranches to Indiana men after trips in private cars, good dinners and merry songs, to which titles were faulty was heard Monday in Criminal Court when affidavits were made out for extradition papers for the return of E. J. Buckingham from Chicago to Indianapolis. Buckingham was indicted by the grand jury last week and was reported Monday to be under arrest. Witz was said to be in Chicago Monday. The indictment charges Buckingham with grand larceny for obtaining $125 from Witz.

Witz was indicted, but the indictments were not pressed. He maintained that he was an agent for others and, although he apparently was the owner, there were others "higher up" for whom he was acting. He turned over practically all his property to the Indiana purchasers of the ranches. He said he made the sales in good faith, believing those who employed him. Since the settlement of the cases against him here he has filed suits in Texas against his principals.—Indianapolis Star.—Witz sold Texas ranches to several Greencastle and Putnam county men.

Silage is valuable in summer as well as winter. R. A. Ogg put 110 tons in his silo and fed from it all winter. When spring came he had quite a quantity left. With it and thirty acres of pasture, he kept forty-one head of cattle, about eighty head of hogs and some horses in good condition until the second growth of clover was ready to pasture in August. No wonder he believes in the silo. Adv

THE CLOVERDALE BOOSTERS BOOST

SIXTY AUTO LOADS OF SOUTH CITIZENS VISIT GREENCASTLE TUESDAY AFTERNOON—BANDS PLAY AND "HOWDY" IS THE SLOGAN.

TRIP IS A BIG SUCCESS

The annual Cloverdale Booster's day, which is celebrated by an automobile caravan of business men and citizens of that town visiting all of the surrounding towns, was pulled off Tuesday, and the Cloverdale people certainly made a success of the event.

Greencastle was the last town visited by the delegation. Several motorists drove east to meet the Cloverdale crowd, and escort them to Greencastle. The bunch arrived here at about four o'clock. There were about 60 automobiles, all nicely decorated in bunting and flags, in the crowd. Two trucks, each carrying a band, were among them. Upon their arrival in Greencastle the bands played and everybody got busy shaking hands.

After a stay of almost an hour the visitors left for Cloverdale. The trip started early Tuesday morning and was a complete success.

Auto Truck Wrecked.

The only accident, with the exception of a few punctures and an occasional blow-out, was when a motor truck belonging to A. G. Broadstreet went into the ditch. The accident occurred just north of Eminence. The truck, which was carrying sixteen men, including most of the band members, struck a small rut in the road. The jar broke the steering gear, causing the huge machine to run into a deep ditch. Fortunately, no one was injured. An examination afterwards showed that the steering gear was defective. Mr. Broadstreet, who had been using his other auto truck to deliver a buggy at Eminence, fastened the crippled truck onto the rear of the other machine and took it back to Cloverdale. At Mt. Meridian, Arthur Hurst loaned his motor truck to the boosters and made the remainder of the trip carrying the band.

GENTLEMEN'S CLUB GUESTS AT FILLMORE.

About twenty members of the Gentlemen's Literary club and their wives and a few guests were entertained at a supper given by the ladies of the Fillmore Christian church, in the church parlors Monday night. The meal was served by the church women and was delicious. The supper consisted of chicken and everything to make a good, old-fashioned country dinner excellent.

During the supper Rev. L. A. Beard gave a toast, "Our Hostesses," in which he complimented the Fillmore ladies on the excellent meal. Professor Ogg spoke on "Our Youngest Son." Professor Ogg when he left here and went to Kokomo a number of years ago organized a club in Kokomo similar to the Gentlemen's club and using the same constitution. Later another was organized at Connersville. The local club members refer to the Kokomo club as "our oldest son," and to the Connersville club as "our youngest son."

James T. Denny then spoke on the membership of the organization. Mrs. John R. Miller and Mrs. R. A. Ogg spoke on "Club Life." T. T. Moore and S. A. Hays, both former members of the club, were called on and gave impromptu talks.

The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, James T. Denny, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Allen, Rev. and Mrs. B. D. Beck, Rev. and Mrs. G. H. L. Beaman, Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Beard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coss, Miss Mary B. Denny, Miss Mary K. Birch, Rev. and Mrs. A. Mills, Professor and Mrs. Ogg, Rev. and Mrs. O. H. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Swahlen, Professor and Mrs. H. G. Woody, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hays, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Moore, Miss Martha Ridpath, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Peck.

FARMERS' CLUB MEETING IS POSTPONED ONE MONTH

Because of the busy season for the farmers, the meeting of the Putnam Farmers' Club, which was to have been held next Saturday, has been postponed for one month. Prof. R. A. Ogg, president of the club, made the announcement of the postponement today.

The Presbyterians at Atlanta.

Some two million Presbyterians of the Northern, Southern and United Presbyterian churches are represented in their three general assemblies now simultaneously in session at Atlantic, Ga. The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. (which is the name of the northern church), the Presbyterian Church in the United States (the Southern Church), and the United Presbyterian church are the three leading Presbyterian churches in this country. While it is understood in advance that there will be effort made to stampede the three bodies for a union of these churches, yet it is believed that the meetings and conferences in such close proximity, with many mass meetings where commissioners of all three bodies shall mingle, will all be of great influence in bringing the churches into closer fellowship. Ultimate union is almost certain.

The Presbyterian Church North elected for its moderator Rev. John Timothy Stone, D. D., of Chicago, after an exciting contest. One of the candidates was Dr. Maitland Alexander of Pittsburgh, who is said to be the richest preacher in the United States and a millionaire. The Presbytery of Indianapolis is represented by Revs. Claude R. Shaver and A. R. Miles of Indianapolis and by Elders John F. Wild of Indianapolis and S. C. Dodds of Bloomington. Mr. Shaver is well known here and has relatives in Greencastle and vicinity. The northern assembly has many churches in the South. It will be a very important meeting and will consider all the great missionary, educational, benevolent and social services efforts of the Presbyterian church. There will be some fine social events in connection with the meetings. It will also afford an occasion for the meeting again of old soldiers of blue and gray, and there will be many campfires where veterans of both sides will come together. Among the commissioners from Minnesota is a former general of the Union army, now a Presbyterian minister, Rev. R. N. Adams, who marched with Sherman through Georgia fifty years ago, and who returns, it is said, now for the first time since the war.

Charley Kelley, one of Greencastle's leading merchants, was held up in broad day light recently. And here is the history of the affair as told by the victim: Sunday afternoon he was in his machine and happened across the road running from the county house to Mt. Meridian. About a mile out of Mt. Meridian he saw another automobile standing in the road. And about this time a lot of girls ran into the road and completely blocked his path.

Charley says there were at least twelve girls and they had all gotten out of the S. A. Hays auto. Miss Lillian Hays, the driver, was having troubles galore. A tire had blown out and although she had walked back to Mt. Meridian to get someone to help her repair the damage she could find no one.

Being an adept at "fixin' tires," Mr. Kelley got busy and soon the car load of young ladies were on their way to town. And they were a happy bunch of girls, too. Charley says the blow-out was fully as large as his hand.

COLLINS IS IN JAIL AT PERU

FORMER CLOVERDALE MAN WHO SHOT EDWARD SMYTHE AT THE AMITY CHURCH LAST FALL, ARRESTED AS MAN WANTED FOR MURDER IN HARTLEY, GEORGIA.

HAS BEEN INDICTED HERE

PERU, Ind., May. 20.—Two Peru policemen, Hunter and Bowden, arrested Henry Nixon, alias Carter, wanted in Hartley, Ga., for the murder of his brother-in-law, and Everett Collins, alleged to be wanted at Cloverdale, Ind., for shooting Edward Smith at a church near that town last December.

The sheriff at Hartley had knowledge that Nixon was working on a bridge here and when his description of Nixon came the police found Collins and accused him of the Georgia crime. Collins said he knew nothing about the Georgia crime, but admitted he was wanted at Cloverdale and was placed in jail. An hour later Nixon was arrested in his room at the Manhattan Inn. He admitted that he was accused of murder, but denied that he was guilty. He is in jail awaiting the arrival of the sheriff from Hartley.

Sheriff Boes went to Peru Thursday to get Collins. He will be brought here and tried. Collins was indicted by the grand jury at its last session. Immediately after the shooting, which occurred at the Amity church, between Cloverdale and Belle Union, Collins disappeared. The dispatch from Peru telling of his arrest was the first heard of him since the shooting.

Young Smith, who was shot by Collins, was only slightly injured. The bullet struck his forehead and went around the side of his head, just under the skin. It is said that the bullet was not meant for Smith, but that Collins was shooting at another man.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baden, of Indianapolis, who have been here for the past few days visiting with Mrs. Baden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Orawley, have returned home.

Marshal Johns on Wednesday said that the automobile speed limit ordinance was not the only one which is going to be enforced. He said that hereafter any person leaving trash or rubbish in alleys would be prosecuted. The alleys near the square are to be cleaned and flushed soon. Marshal Johns says he sure will "file against" persons who then leave paper or trash in them.

The hearing of the remonstrance filed against the proposed straightening of Eel river, which was set for hearing in the Clay circuit court yesterday was postponed until June 26, by Judge Rawley. Many land owners living in the Eel river valley are opposed to the work and declare they will fight the movement until it is abandoned.

A derailed flat car in north bound extra No. 281 which was heading out of this city about noon today, caused a delay of about hours to traffic on this road, as it was about 2 o'clock before the derailed trucks were placed back in position and the track was cleared so that trains could pass the scene of the accident.—Bedford Democrat.

E. E. Caldwell received a telegram on Wednesday announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. A. J. Caldwell, age 80, at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Yerger at Maywood, Ill., a suburb of Chicago. Mr. Caldwell left at noon for Chicago, where he goes to accompany the body to Indianapolis, the former home, where the interment will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

The marriage of Miss Zulia N. Taylor, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Taylor and Harley H. Pell, of Harmony, was solemnized last evening at 7:30 o'clock at the George E. Law matrimonial parlors on North Franklin street. They were accompanied to the parlors by Misses Elizabeth and Della Pell and Messrs. Alfred Pell and Reggie McCullough. The bride was dressed in a white dress with shoes and large picture hat to harmonize. The groom is employed at the Knight-Brinkhoff Piano company and they will go to house-keeping at once in East Brazil in a cottage which is already furnished by the groom.—Brazil Times.—Mr. Pell is well known in the Western part of the county.
